SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII TO EXPAND ITS SENIOR CITIZEN
VISITOR PROGRAM TO ALL ITS UNIVERSITY AND COMMUNITY COLLEGE CAMPUSES.

1 WHEREAS, kupuna, or senior citizens, are an important
2 component of our society, contributing wisdom and depth to our
3 communities; and
4

5 WHEREAS, according to the United States Department of 6 Labor, the nationwide population of people aged sixty-five to 7 sixty-nine years old will rise by thirty-seven per cent from 8 2010 to 2020, while the number of people aged seventy years and 9 older will rise by thirty-eight per cent; and 10

11 WHEREAS, the rising number of people aged seventy-five and 12 older is exponentially greater in the State of Hawaii with an 13 increase of one hundred and sixteen per cent from 1990 to 2012;
14 and
15

16 WHEREAS, along with the wisdom and experience that come
17 with age, declines in mental and physical health, such as those 18 resulting from dementia and Alzheimer's disease, can also occur;
19 and
20

21 WHEREAS, Jean Carper's book, "100 Simple Things You Can Do
22 to Prevent Alzheimer's and Age-Related Memory Loss," and a
23 number of studies provide evidence that continuing education is 24 one of the ways to maintain mental health; and 25

26 WHEREAS, staying cognitively active throughout life, and
27 especially in senior years, is associated with lowering the risk
28 of suffering from Alzheimer's disease; and 29

S.C.R. NO. 151

WHEREAS, the University of Hawaii has established the Senior Citizen Visitor Program to help our kupuna stay mentally active by giving them an opportunity to visit university classes free of charge; and

WHEREAS, approximately three hundred senior citizens visit classes at the University of Hawaii at Manoa each semester through the Senior Citizen Visitor Program; and

WHEREAS, these seniors add to the diversity of campus culture and contribute their experience to the classroom setting; and

WHEREAS, the University of Hawaii system includes three university campuses and seven community college campuses; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-eighth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2015, the House of Representatives concurring, that the University of Hawaii system is requested to expand its Senior Citizen Visitor Program to all its university and community college campuses; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Chairperson of the University of Hawaii Board of Regents.
